

STERILIZATION OF FIRE SPRINKLER SYSTEMS

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

New and in-use fire sprinkler systems can be sterilized by employing antimicrobial gases.. The gases include steam, oxygen, and chlorine. Water added to the system after sterilization can be sterilized to prevent the reoccurrence of microbiological contamination.

0041091E 100119
66T00T" 9T60T460